COMPANY PROFILE

1. Executive Summary

Centispin Travel Agency is a 100% Papua New Guinean-owned and operated travel enterprise. The business is currently in its establishment phase and is actively completing all necessary licensing and accreditation requirements to operate as a fully independent travel agency within the region.

The agency was founded to bridge the gap in dependable, seamless, and customer-focused travel management. Our primary objective is to deliver practical travel solutions tailored specifically for individuals, families, community groups, and corporate clients traveling both within Papua New Guinea and to international destinations. Once fully accredited, Centispin Travel Agency will operate under a strict framework of ethical business practices, clear communication, and total compliance with all local and international aviation and travel industry regulations.
